

INFORMED CONSENT TO MASSAGE THERAPY

Please read the following information thoroughly. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask them. As a part of our profession's on-going commitment to provide quality care, it is essential that you are fully aware and understand your rights, the treatment procedure and any policy. This will assist you in making an informed choice in regards to massage therapy.

Client Rights:

- *It is your right to determine what, if anything may be done to your body. You exercise this right by giving or withholding your written consent.
- *It is your right to refuse, modify, or terminate treatment (or any aspect of treatment) at anytime regardless of prior consent.
- *If any of the following areas (inner thigh, gluteal/buttock, abdomen or breast) are to be included into treatment, the therapeutic indication and treatment procedure will be discussed by the client and therapist and additional consent will be given prior to undraping and treating those areas.
- *All client information (written or verbal) is confidential and will be safeguarded by the therapist except when disclosure is required by law or order of the court.
- *Written authorization will be obtained prior to all communication concerning client's records.
- *Draping defines a physical boundary which ensures the comfort and privacy of the client. Only those areas being treated will be undraped. Being fully undraped or fully clothed during the treatment is also an option.
- *If the R.M.T. feels referral to another health care provider is necessary, this will be done with the clients consent.
- *I have read and fully understand all the information included in this consent document.
- *Anything unclear was discussed and explained by the R.M.T.
- *I confirm that I am capable to consenting to treatment.
- *I acknowledge my consent is voluntary and I understand that I may withdraw it at any time.
- *I hereby consent to participate in this therapeutic relationship.
- *Any account balance left outstanding for 60 days will be subject to interest charges and accounts outstanding for 75 days or more will incur an administration fee of $30.00 and be sent to collections.
- *A minimum of 24 hours notice is required if you need to cancel or reschedule. If 24 hours notice is not given, a missed appointment charge for the full amount of time you were booked will be applied to your account. The missed visit charge will not be reimbursed to you by your extended health carrier.
